Besides, much of ethics, philosophy of language, and philosophy of mind is based on the results of thought experimENTS in a way that seems very similar to scientific thought experimENTS (though some might contest this), including Searle's Chinese room, Putnam's twin earth, and Jackson's Mary the colour scientist.

This playful and profound French bestseller about finding the miraculous in the mundane offers 101 experimENTS in the philosophy of everyday life.

Roger Pol-Droit's highly original book is a reassessment of our day-to-day engagement with life. In 101 short texts, written with limpid elegance, Droit invites us to reconsider our most ordinary actions as unexpected philosophical events: peeling an apple, trying to lie in a hammock, watching someone sleep, hearing your voice on an answering machine, playing with a small child - activities that, when considered outside of their routine, invite us to experience the familiar in startling new ways. Droit encourages us to go further: pretend to be an animal of your choice, create a wall with your hands, try to walk around your room in total darkness, spend time in the Underground - and observe your oddity.

Di tu nombre en voz alta, en una habitacio'n vaci'2a. Viaja en tren sin fijar un destino. Imagina que el mundo acaba en veinte segundos. Mata a alguien con la imaginacio'n. Imagina un romance con aquella persona del metro. Nunca lo diri'2as, pero estos ejercicios son claves para abrir las puertas del pensamiento filoso'fico. Chispas para lograr encenderlo en tu mente. Experiencias pra'cticas para explorar tus li'2mites, hacerte nuevas preguntas y maravillarte de lo que te rodea. Roger-Pol Droit, consejero de Filosofi'a de la UNESCO, plantea una tabla de 101 ejercicios mentales para que tu mundo nunca vuelva a ser el mismo. ENGLISH DESCRIPTION Say your name aloud to yourself in a quiet room. Imagine peeling an apple in your mind. Take the subway without trying to get anywhere. The simple meditations in this book have the potential to shake us awake from our preconceived certainties: our own identity, the stability of the outside world, the meanings of words. At once entertaining and startling, irreverent and wise, this book will provoke moments of awareness for readers in any situation and in all walks of life. Enter the space of your favorite painting. Watch someone sleeping. The world won't look the same again.

This playful and profound French bestseller about finding the miraculous in the mundane offers 101 experimENTS in the philosophy of everyday life.

Perfect for gifting to lovers of philosophy or mining intelligent ice-breaker topics for your next party, The Pig That Wants to Be Eaten offers one hundred philosophical puzzles that stimulate thought on a host of moral, social, and personal dilemmas. Taking examples from sources as diverse as Plato and Steven Spielberg, author Julian Baggini presents abstract philosophical issues in concrete terms, suggesting possible solutions while encouraging readers to draw their own conclusions: Lively, clever, and thought-provoking, The Pig That Wants to Be Eaten is a portable feast for the mind that is sure to satisfy any intellectual appetite.

Wittgenstein's Beetle and Other Classic Thought Experiments invites readers to participate actively in discovering the surprisingly powerful and fruitful tradition of "thought experimENTS." Gives a lively presentation of an "A to Z" of 26 fascinating and influential thought experimENTS from philosophy and science Presents vivid and often humorous discussion of the experimENTS, including strengths and weaknesses, historical context, and contemporary uses Provides a "how to" section for engaging in thought experimENTS Includes illustrations, mini-biographies, and suggestions for further reading.

A fresh and original introduction to philosophy, written in a clear and entertaining style. The first part of the book presents philosophical problems, the second part contains solutions and further discussions.

Can we learn anything from the ordinary objects that surround us - the things we use in everyday life? The answer is: yes, more than you think. You don't notice these things. You use them, which is enough. Or not enough.

"An Experiment with Time" by J. W. Dunne. Published by Good Press. Good Press publishes a wide range of titles that encompasses every genre. From well-known classics & literary fiction and non-fiction to forgotten?or yet undiscovered gems?of world literature, we issue the books that need to be read. This impressive debut novel, longlisted for the 2020 Booker Prize, takes its premise and inspiration from ten of the best-known thought experimENTS in philosophy—the what-ifs of philosophical investigation—and uses them to talk about love in a wholly unique way. Married couple Rachel and Eliza are considering having a child. Rachel wants one desperately, and Eliza thinks she does, too, but she can't quite seem to wrap her head around the idea. When Rachel wakes up screaming one night and tells Eliza that an ant has crawled into her eye and is stuck there, Eliza initially sees it as a cry for attention. But Rachel is adamant. She knows it sounds crazy—but she also knows it's true. As a scientist, Eliza is skeptical. Suddenly their entire relationship is called into question. What follows is a uniquely imaginative sequence of ten interconnecting episodes—each from a different character's perspective—inspired by some of the best-known thought experimENTS in philosophy. Together they form a sparkling philosophical tale of love lost and found across the universe.
