publication, "The Tape," with a closer look at an entire macro setup in order to create a high-level view of a macroeconomic, top-down technical cycle. The end result aids readers in expanding upon simple, long-term trading levels, and introduces new concepts of how assets trade relative to one another based on macroeconomic principles. His discussion of these long-term charts and macroeconomic relationships, as well as intermarket analysis, shows readers how to optimize the strategies and timeliness of their setups. The result: not only will you better understand Chopra's methodologies, you will also gain practical insight into the potential power of a setup on its related markets.

the wisdom of the statement exhibited in a Japanese shrine: "Woe unto him who has not tasted defeat." Victory too often leads to overconfidence and erases the memory of mistakes. Defeat brings into sharp focus the causes that led to failure and provides a fruitful field of study for those soldiers and laymen who seek in the past lessons for the future. The statesman and the informed citizen reading these pages will realize that our military means as well as our estimates and plans must always be in balance with our long-range national policy. This lesson signposted by the Battle of Manila Bay; the Treaty of Paris, signed in December 1898 when we decided to keep the Philippines; the Washington Conference of 1921-22; and the Manchurian Crisis of 1931 we ignored before Pearl Harbor. The result was defeat on the field of
