Caring For The

Elderly In A
In the Second Edition,
Gelfand devotes

greater attention to the impact of

immigration on the United States and

provides a useful
model for providers

working with older
persons from diverse
ethnic backgrounds.

Based on 2000

Census data, this edition contains updated references throughout along with new tables/graphs.

Chapter topics include: Security and the Ethnic Elderly; Family and Church as Sources of Assistance; and Programs and Services for the Ethnic Aged. Not

Age Through

Ethnic Lenses

meant to be an exhaustive review of the literature, the text focuses on specific issues and themes

that the author

believes are important

to understanding and

meeting the needs of

older people from

diverse backgrounds.

This new edition has been completely

Age Through

rewritten and includes chapters that address key topics in diversity and aging: research methods, psychological aging; health beliefs, behaviors, and services; health disparities; informal and formal care for older persons; work and retirement; religious affiliation and

spirituality; and death,

dying, and

bereavement. Taking

a broad view of

diversity, Mehrotra

and Wagner discuss

elements of diversity

such as gender, race

or ethnicity, religious affiliation, social class,

rural-urban

community location

and sexual orientation. Including

these elements allows them to convey some of the rich complexities of our diverse culture - complexities that provide both challenges to meet the needs of diverse population and opportunities to learn how to live in a pluralistic society.

Throughout the book,

Mehrotra and Wagner present up-to-date knowledge and scholarship in a way that engages readers in active learning.

Rather than simply transmitting information, the authors place ongoing emphasis on developing readers' knowledge and skills; fostering higher order

thinking and

encouraging

exploration of

personal values and

attitudes. Distinctive

features of the book

include: Opening

vignettes for each

chapter that present a

sampling of how the

issues to be

discussed apply to

diverse elders. Active

learning experiences

that invite readers to interview diverse elders, conduct internet searches, and give an analysis of a case study. Quizzes at the end of the chapters help readers ascertain the extent to which they have learned the material; the key for each quiz includes details about correct and incorrect

additional learning can occur. Aging and

boxes interspersed
throughout the book
provide internet
resources that
readers may use to
find new research and
publications.

Suggested readings
and audiovisual
resources given at the end of each chapter

serve as a guide to
additional information
on topics covered in the chapter. This approach of

presenting the

material will help the

readers understand

and apply key

concepts and

principles in ways that will not only improve

the lives of older people they serve, but will also enhance their own aging experience.

Multicultural

Part of the Ageing in a Global Context series, this book proposes a new research agenda for scholarship that focuses on ethnicity, race and old age. It argues that in a time of increased migration, population

ageing and ethno-
cultural diversity,

scholarly imagination
must be expanded as
current research

frameworks are becoming obsolete.

By bringing attention
to the way that
ethnicity and race
have been addressed
in research on ageing

and old age, with a focus on health inequalities, health and social care, intergenerational relationships and caregiving, the book proposes how research can be developed in an ethnicity astute and diversity informed manner.
