The format of insurance exams is a timed, proctored, multiple-choice test, consisting of around 50-180 questions. The actual length of each exam will depend on the state you are testing in, and the license for which you are applying.

How To Pass The Insurance Exam

I enjoyed doing C12 Insurance on Property, but the exam was murder. I was foiled by a couple of really obscure questions from the textbook about farm insurance. Farm insurance was of no relevance to me, so while I did read it first time through the book, it didn't stick with me. The CIP courses are very much a "your mileage may vary" experience.
