Secondary School has become the widely recommended textbook for student and new teachers of geography. It helps you acquire a deeper understanding of the role, purpose and potential of geography within the secondary curriculum, and provides the practical skills needed to design, teach and evaluate stimulating and challenging lessons. It is grounded in the notion of social justice and the idea that all students are entitled to a high quality geography education. The very practical dimension provides you with support structures through which you can begin to develop your own philosophy of teaching, and debate key questions about the nature and purpose of the subject in school. Fully revised and updated in light of extensive changes to the curriculum, as well as to initial teacher education, the new edition considers the current debates around what we mean by geographical knowledge, and his book, Rohan has outlined his tried and tested methods to achieve the best grades. There is step by step guide on planning, making a timetable, and revision techniques leading up to the GCSE exams. There are separate chapters for subject-specific advice as the same technique cannot work for subjects like English and Chemistry. There are tips on how to stay motivated and also relax and enjoy at the same time. Smart working rather than a lot of working helps. Read this book and arm yourself with studying techniques which will help you not only in your GCSEs but all future exams.
