"Knowing God is crucially important for the living of our lives. The world becomes a strange, mad, painful place, and life in it a disappointing and unpleasant business, for those who do not know about God" (Jim Packer), Knowing God – The Beginning of Understanding Throughout the Jewish Scriptures we learn that knowing God starts with fearing God. Indeed, "the fear of God is the beginning of understanding, wisdom, and knowledge" (Proverbs 1:7, Proverbs 9:10, Psalm 19:9, Psalm 33:8 ...

Spiritual knowledge is knowledge that a person cannot really understand unless he or she has access to God's Holy Spirit. Please read the article " The Spirit of Truth ". Only if we have access to God's Holy Spirit can we come to really know the true God. Paul explained this in 1 Corinthians 2:9-10:

How to Know God – Life, Hope & Truth
Knowing God Energizes Our Soul "That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death" (Philippians 3:10). Our soul either shrivels, seduced by a noisy culture or is energized by an uncommon quietness before our Creator.

Knowing God Versus Knowing About God – Wisdom Hunters
Packer knows that the Christian life is characterized by gaiety, goodness and just pure joy. It is sometimes a simple response to God's call, no overthinking, no head knowledge, just a heart that is open to the urging of The Holy Spirit. God is not lost in the clutter of prideful Christian formulas that we can rattle off on command.

Knowing About God, but Not Knowing God. — | St. John Studies
The Bible is God's Word to man, and when I read it and receive light by the Holy Spirit, I learn to know God and His ways. I realize that in my own strength, I can't do God's will. Instead of giving up and blaming it on the fact that I am "just human," I need to turn to God and ask Him for help.

Knowing God or knowing about God? – Active Christianity
Finally, truly knowing God involves our commitment to obey what we read in the Scriptures. After all, we were created to do good works (Ephesians 2:10) in order to be part of God's plan of continuing to reveal Himself to the world. We carry the responsibility to live out the very faith that is required to know God.

Stemming from Packer's profound theological knowledge, Knowing God brings together two important facets of the Christian faith— knowing about God and also knowing God through the context of a close relationship with the person of Jesus Christ. Written in an engaging and practical tone, this thought-provoking work seeks to transform and enrich the Christian understanding of God.

Knowing God – InterVarsity Press
Atheists deny we can know God because they deny there is a God to know. But even believers who affirm God's existence sometimes don't know him. They don't know much about God because they neglect to think much about God and what God has revealed about himself. They accept that there is a God but they don't give much thought to what God is like.

Knowing God: God and the Human Condition by Frank Sheed
Knowing God Quotes Showing 1-30 of 196 "Wait on the Lord" is a constant refrain in the Psalms, and it is a necessary word, for God often keeps us waiting. He is not in such a hurry as we are, and it is not his way to give more light on the future than we need for action in the present, or to guide us more than one step at a time.
