Prudent Investor Rule Definition

The Prudent Investor Rule The Rule is a part of the Restatement (Third) of Trusts. The Rule establishes standards for the prudent investment of trust assets. While the Rule itself is not law, forty-four states and the District of Columbia have adopted the Uniform Prudent Investor Act, the codification of the Rule. Even though the Rule speaks in terms of a trustee's fiduciary duties, the Rule has basically been applied as the standard of conduct for all financial fiduciaries.
